PAGET WINS THREE RACES.

CZARAPHINE TAKES COLUMBUS STAKES GALLOPING.

Deuxtemps and Phidias Also Succeed in the Mud-Bohemia Beats Lelestron c.

Svenev Paget enjoyed a field day at Jamaica yesterday afternoon when Czaraphine, Deuxtemps and Phidias carried his well known colors to victory over a muddy track. Incidentally, Hildebrand rode three winners. while three favorites landed the money for the form players.

Czaraphine, a 13 to 20 favorite, won the Columbus Stakes, for three-year-olds, six furlongs, in a breezing gallop. Hildebrand took the lead with her without delay, and she was never threatened, having an advantage of four lengths over Escutcheon, second choice, from whom the Paget filly received six pounds. Goldfleur, the only other starter. was half a dozen lengths away. The time Deuxtemps, a 7 to 1 shot, took the first event, for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs, by a head. He led all the way and lasted long enough to trim Bantam, also 7 to 1. Frank Farrell's Tarlac, a 50 to 1 chance, ran a good race for his first time out and was third, four lengths back, and a length before Newton Bennington's Merrick, 11 to 5 favorite.

E. F. Smathers's Burleigh picked up 117 pounds in the second race, a handicap for three-year-olds and over, and, heavily played at 8 to 5, proceeded to make a show of the others from start to finish. Hildebrand had him well in hand when he passed the judges, three lengths before Toscan, the topweight, who was hammered down to 9 to 5. The latter, under Odom's drive, took place money rom New York, 7 to 1, by a length.

With Handzarra scratched from the third race, for three-year-olds, six furlongs, the talent was divided in its support of the Albemarie Stable's Bohemia, 8 to 5, and the Paget filly, Belle Strome, 3 to 2. Bohemia proved much the best, for she ran over both Belle Strome and Teacress, 12 to 1, who had made the early pace, and won by two lengths from the latter, with Belle Strome third, three parts of a length back. R. T. Wilson, Jr. s. Sufferance, backed down to fives, evidently did not relish the going.

Frank Farrell's King Pepper, 6 to 1, made a greater part of the running in the fifth race. at a mile and seventy yards, but he sur-rendered to Lord Badge, second choice, who came on in the stretch and won in a hard drive by three parts of a length. King Pepper was game under punishment and beat Arsenal, the favorite, a nose for the place.

Father Bill Daly's Veronese, a hot favorite in the last race, for maiden two-year-olds, four and a half furiongs, after showing the way to the head of the stretch, quit as Mr. Paget's Phidias, 4 to 1, challenged, and the latter won easily by a length and a half in 0.55 3-5. Veronese had a margin of eight lengths for the place, with Newton Benning-ton's Sidney F., 4 to 1, a poor third. The summaries: FIRST BACE.

at scratch on the Massachusetts handicap list, needed 86, which indicates the burdens of handicappers, F. Murray Olyphant, Jr., the New Jersey State champion, did an 80, and this helped greatly in putting the Prince-ton four in the lead for the team banner.

Eben M. Byers, who at this time last year was at Sandwich, and who has twice been runner up in our amateur championship, pressed on the leaders with an 81. Frank O. Reinhart, the former intercollegiate champion, made the morning journey in 84, while W. T. West, also of the Princeton team, and a semi-finalist in the amateur championship, jotted up a total two strokes higher. Arden M. Robbins and F. C. Jennings, who played together, were also in the 86 group. The latter had the 140 yard second hole in 2. In the team race the banner and trophy were won by Garden City, alded by Travis's record sore. The order of the finish was Garden City, 678; Princeton, 682; Lakewood, 713; Oakmont, 718; Allesheny, 421; Ekwanok, 727; Atlantic City, 734.

There was rain in the morning, of the soft and gentle variety beloved of gardeners in the spring and greenkeepers, but after in the spring and greenkeepers, but on to particularly welcome to the golfers, but after in the spring and greenkeepers, but after in the spring and spreenkeepers, but not particularly stimulating to watch, even if records are being knocked out, so the onlookers found the most fun to be at the home green. Here every fine put met with appreciative applause and the posting up of the scores was also viewed with interest. This morning there will be match play started between the respective sixtens for the Country, Club, Metedeconk and Carasallo cups and runner up prizes. There were seventy-six starters. The summary:

RACES IN THE GARDEN. Trotters and Ponies Provide Sport for Horse Fair Crowd.

There was some interesting racing on the fourth day of the Horse Fair in Madison Square Garden. Although the race for trotters had to be declared off, cwing to lack of starters, the pacing race had three starters and was won in straight heats by The Goat, ridden by Brusie. John McGuire's Satan, ably handled by Swan, was second in each heat. Notion, ridden by Randall, brought heat. Notion, ridden by Randall, brought up the rear.

The sweepstakes for polo ponies under 14 3 hands, with $100 added, of which $25 to second horse, distance one-quarter mile, had three starters, with Flash at the pole, Spark in second place and Brown Thrush outside. Flash lost the pole at the first turn and soon dropped out entirely. Brown Thrush ran into the lead at once and remained there to the finish. The time was 0.40. Brown Thrush won the second heat and race, with Flash second, in 0.484.

A sweepstakes for ponies under 14.5 hands, with two pounds allowance for each '4 inch under 14.2, winners at the Fair to carry five pounds extra, had three starters, Virginia Frances at the pole, Little Squaw and Moonlight Maid following. The Maid ran into the lead at once and she was not headed. Time, 1:214. Moonlight Mai and Virginia. Frances were the starters in the second heat and the Maid won. Time, 1:194.

Four starters made up the field in the third sweepstake at half a mile, conditions the same as before. There was a long delay at the post. Bobs bucked in a manner that entitled him to become a member of Col. Mulhall's show. Jimmy Cox persisted in facing the wrong way and Little Jim was bound to keep in the rear. Beauty slone was well mannered.

keep in the rear. Beauty alone was well mannered.

At the fall of the flag Jimmie Cox jumped into the lead and made a runaway race of the heat. Little Jim got away in the rear, but ran into second place on the fourth lap. Bobs brought up the rear. The time was 1:20. There was a long delay in the start for the second heat and one false start. At the fall of the flag Jimmie Cox was far in the rear and never was prominent.

Little Jim jumped into the lead, but he was not well ridden and ran wide at the turn. Bobs hugging the pole soon headed Jim and, aided by the shorter route, won the heat in 1:21. With only the heat winners to start in the third heat and both bad actors there was another long delay. Bobs refused to break and Jimmie Cox cantered over the course for the money.

CAVANAGH WINS THE DAY.

JOCKEY CLUB NOTIFIES BOOK-MAKERS TO YIELD.

Concessions Said to Have Been Made in Order to Recetablish Peace in the Turf World-Fight Caused by Jealousy -Conference Before Meeting of "Mets."

In spite of the warfare that has been conducted by leading members of the Metropolitan Turf Association, otherwise known as the Bookmakers' Syndicate, against John G. core trophy.

W. C. Chick, who is bracketed with Egan as the custodian of the socal betting rings. Cavanagh will remain in supreme control o affairs, a fact that was established yesterday afternoon when Cavanagh, George Wheelock president of the "Mets," and several members of the Jockey Club went over the matter at tength. Cavanagh did not go to the Jamaica track at all during the day, and Wheelock, who was there during the running of the first at all during the day, and Wheelock, who was there during the running of the first race, left suddenly for the city in response to a mysterious telegram. The conference was held, it is said, if the Windsor Arcade, and when it was at an end Wheelock hurried away to a special meeting of the bookmakers' syndicate, held last night in the headquarters on West Twenty-sist; street. While all that Cavanagh's friends would say was that he was perfectly satisfied with the way things had turned out, it was common take among bookmakers who attended the meeting last night that Wheelock had been informed in no uncertain way that the Jockey Club would insist upon the retention of Cavanagh, no matter what might be the outcome. As the Jockey Club is all powerful and the racing associations are a unit in favor of Cavanagh, there was nothing left for Wheelock and the Mets to do but surrender or fight. But as Cavanagh, it is said, was ready to make a few concessions, including the acceptance of $1 a day instead of $1.50 in return for the service he supplies to the books in the way of information concerning jockeys, weights, overweights and other things, Wheelock went to the bookmakers' meeting feeling that he had gained a point.

The bookmakers last night, 125 out of 200 members, listened to many speeches from their leaders, including Wheelock, Jones and others, and then a majority showed an inclination to accept the inevitable rather than show fight, which would mean an open betting ring. But during the talk that went on it turned out that the campaign against Cavanagh was due to jealousy.

"Cavanagh was put in his present place by Wheelock and Jones," said a well known bookmaker. "This was eight years ago, when John J. Egan was set aside for him. Since then Cavanagh has made half a million dollars out of the Job, and is making now between $80,000 and $90,000 each year. Meanwhile the Mets, as an organization, have made nothing; yet we feel that we are entitled to something. That is why we wanted to start the Adlera in business pr race, left suddenly for the city in response sition. When a friend of Cavanagh heard of this desire to bid for the "privilege" he said that it was absurd, as there was no "privilege," so called, but a business which Cavanagh himself had built up and was entitled to. At any rate the fact remains that what the Jockey Club says generally goes, whether bookmakers like it or not.

lockey Club says generally goes, whether bookmakers like it or not.

TRACK GAMES AT PRINCETON.

Class of 1907 a Likely Winner in Caledonian games of Princeton were held here this afternoon. It rained heavily during the morning and the track was in bad condition. Owing to the softness of the ground the pole vault event had to be omitted, so the result of the games is still in doubt. The class of 1908 got 48; points and 1907 got 46.

The pole vault will take place to-morrow, and as 1907 ne man entered and will be a gountful sprint, as 1907 has two men entered, one of whom will be apt to get a second place, while 1908 has only one man entered and will be a gountful sprint, as two mile run was won by a beautiful sprint, as two mile run was won by a beautiful sprint, as two mile run was won by kelly, a freshman, who has developed wonderfully since entering college last fall, and who is now well up among the Princeton had first finning. BILLIARDS.

Willie Hoppe Outplays Schaefer on Opening Night of 1,200 Point Match.

Jake Schaefer and Willie Hoppe began a billiard tourney of 1,200 points 18 inch balk line, played in blocks of 400, at the Knickerbocker Billiard Academy, Brooklyn, last night. It was said that the winner of the match would be sent abroad for a series of international contests. In the 400 points disposed of last night Hoppe showed fine form and won from the Wizard by the big margin of 197 points, the total score being 400 to 203. Schaefer won the bank and selecting the spot ball gathered in a bunch of twelve refractory buttons. He missed on a long bank shot. Hoppe followed with a solitary score, and Schaefer was little better in the next two innings with 2 and 4 respectively. In the third inning Hoppe clicked off 24, and in the next five innings neither did anything worth mentioning. Then Hoppe woke up with 17 and Schaefer made 22. Hoppe following with a well earned string of 28.

Schaefer ripped out 28 in the thirteenth inning and Hoppe only accounted for 2. Two buttons went to Schaefer in the next, but he left a nice set-up for Hoppe, who, getting the ivories under control, began a run which put the crowd on edge. Exhibiting a fine free style he gave a display of every style of shot known to the modern wielders of the cue. When he passed the century mark he got a big ovation, but nothing rattled him, and he kept his stroke, only falling on a long draw shot after he had turned off 146. These figures he foliowed with 68 and 23, which made his total 370 to 103 for the Wizard. In the eighteenth inning, however, Schaefer braced himself for 34, but he was too far behind, and Hoppe per an out the game in the next two innings with 1 and 19. The score: Schaefer-12, 2, 4, 2, 0, 0, 5, 1, 8, 22, 3, 0, 26, 2, 22, 1, 15, 54, 4, 27. Total, 200. High runs-54, 26, 22, 22. Average, 103-20.

NEW YORK (N. L.), 4: BROOKLYN, 0 For the sake of revenge for their defeat by the Brooklyns on Wednesday the New York Nationals shut out the Brooklyns yester-day at Washington Park. Incidentally, one of the New Yorks made himself obnoxious by his kicking and was properly benched by Umpire Johnstone. Strang was the disci-plined kicker. Johnstone also sent McGraw o the bench from the coaching lines for too much chin music. For six innings the Brookmuch chin music. For six innings the Brook-lyns ran neck and neck with the champions, but in the seventh and eighth innings the New Yorks, who do not often lose two games in succession, came with a rush and clinched the game. Ames pitched with telling effect, and in batting and fielding and general ex-cellence the New Yorks excelled their neighcellence the New 1018 taxtered to bors.

The first inning in which a run seemed imminent was the third, in which Gilbert led off with a single. Bowerman put him on second with a sacrifice, but Ames and Donlin could not bring him home. Two New Yorkers reached base in the fourth, one of them, Strang, being caught napping, and the other, Mertes, being left after making a two bagger. A double play squelched the Broeklyns in the Strang, being caught happing, and the other. Mertes, being left after making a two bagger. A double play squelched the Broeklyns in the fifth, with the bases filled. There was one out when Lewis and Dobbs singled and Mertes muffed Babb's fly, peopling the corners. Bergen grounded to dibert, who, with the aid of Dahlen and Bowerman, consummated a rapid double play.

Bresnahan singled in the seventh. Mertes filed to Sheckard, but Dahlen singled. Sheckard make a good return to Batch to head off Bresnahan, but Batch miscued and Bresnahan was safe at third. He scored on Devlin's base hit. There were two out in the eighth inning when the New Yorks amassed three more runs, this after Donlin had doubled and Bresnahan beat out a hit to Lewis. On Eason's fumble of Mertes's grounder Hall scored, and on Dahlen's single Bresnahan scored. The throwing of Dahlen's hit was poor, and Mertes registered on the foozle The score:
